

Presented With Veteran Award

Archie J. Williams, head of the Williams Natural History Museum of the Baker-Hunt Foundation, Green-up street, Covington, and Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop No. 6 Covington, was presented with a twenty-five-year Veteran Award at the Scouters' convention held Saturday in Covington. He is the only Northern Kentuckian to receive the award.

Williams' three brothers, Clifford, Raymond and James, Jr., also received degrees of the Veteran Award. Clifford and Raymond Williams received the fifteen-year award and James Williams was the recipient of a ten-year award.

Others to receive the Veteran Award were Henry Fahlbush, who was presented with a ten-year award, and Robert Fee, who received a five-year award. H. W. Norton, council commissioner, made the presentations.
