

CITY'S OLDEST COAL FIRM IS CELEBRATING

55th Anniversary Is Observed
by Hatfield Company

Covington's oldest coal firm is celebrating its 55th anniversary.

J. T. Hatfield, founder of the firm, today is receiving the congratulations of friends at the company's headquarters, the Hatfield Coal Co. office, 728 Madison avenue, Covington.

Fifty-five years ago Mr. Hatfield opened his office on 15th street, Covington. He recalls that he had a wheelbarrow to make his deliveries. Today his firm owns a fleet of barges and steamboats and owns its mines in the Big Kanawa field.

Mr. Hatfield is a native northern Kentuckian.
