

DOCTOR TO BE BURIED

In Owenton Tomorrow—Formerly
Practiced In Latonia.

DR. C. H. DUVALL.

Services for Dr. C. H. Duvall, former resident of Covington and a Louisville & Nashville Railroad physician, who died Saturday at his residence in Fort Worth, Texas, will be conducted at 1 o'clock (Central Standard Time) tomorrow at Longridge Baptist Church, Owenton, Ky. Burial will be in the Owenton Cemetery. The body will be at the Connley funeral home, Covington, from 8 to 11 o'clock tomorrow.

Dr. Duvall, who was active in Northern Kentucky Masonry, practiced medicine in Latonia for 15 years. He was 70 years old. During the World War he served as a Captain in the Army Medical Corps.

His widow, Mrs. Laura Connley Duvall, Fort Worth; a son, J. C. Duvall, Fort Worth; a daughter, Mrs. T. J. Youngblood, Fort Worth; two sisters, Mrs. Hollis Foster and Mrs. Jennie Dunevant, both of Owen County, Kentucky, and eight grandchildren survive him. 7-1-40