

1) Domestic Work of the Roman's Empire.

A fact, that has been year-penetrating, to the understanding of Church people — a fact — that should be pressed home upon them day by day. — Year by year — is — That every baptized, man-woman and child — of the Protestant Episcopal Church, is a member of the Missionary Society!

It is a parallel case, with an American being a Christian: — as Bishop Thompson says — "The question only remains, — as to what Kind of a Christian, you will be"

2 So - with the baptized person, the point to decide is - Will you throw (a part at least) of your energy, enthusiasm, courage, interest, into this great movement, that is trying to Christianize the whole World - Carry light into darkness, buoyancy of spirit where hope has fled; - Or - Will you drag down the work of others, blighting their efforts, and damaging the cause You have sworn to uphold -

At every turn we hear some excuse - 'Tis household cares, Business, other lines of church work - all of which, we try to make ourselves think are thoroughly legitimate facts, - but which are only flimsy excuses - When your Rector has
