

All I Want Is a Pumpkin Pie

Grota the Witch lived in a cottage. She loves bats. Grota does not like ghosts. She wanted to make a pumpkin pie. So she planted a pumpkin seed. She watered it. She went outside. She cut the pumpkin. Blast! Out came a ghost. It took down her house. She said, "Stop that!" She got her broom and told the ghost to get on. The ghost got on. The ghost got sent off. And never got seen again.
