

Great Gift Books For Adults

With the holidays right around the corner, chances are you're looking for great gift ideas. A book is the perfect choice.

Biography

Not Dead Yet: the memoir by Phil Collins
The Prince Diarist by Carrie Fisher
In Such Good Company by Carol Burnett
Born to Run by Bruce Springsteen

History

The Nine of Us: Growing up Kennedy by Jean Kennedy Smith
Les Parisiennes: how the women of Paris lived, Love and Died under Nazi occupation by Anne Sebba
Killing the Rising Sun: how America vanquished World War II Japan by Bill O'Reilly and Martin Dugard

Cooking

Appetites by Anthony Bourdain
Cooking for Jeffrey by Ina Garten
How to Bake Everything by Mark Bittman

Self-Help

Thank and Grow Rich by Pam Grout
Whole30 Food Freedom Forever: Letting go of bad habits, guilt and anxiety around food by Melissa Hartwig
Love your life not theirs: 7 money habits for living the life you want by Rachel Cruze

Science and Nature

The Way Things Work Now
by David Macaulay
Star Talk by Neil deGrasse Tyson
Being a Dog by Alexandra Horowitz

Holiday Fiction

Christmas Town by Donna VanLiere
Winter Storms by Elin Hilderbrand
Mistletoe Secret
by Richard Paul Evans
Choose Your Own Misery:
The Holidays by Mike MacDonald & Jilly Gagnon
A Christmas Carol: The Original Manuscript Edition by Charles Dickens, with a foreword by Colm Toibin

This list was created by librarians at the Kenton County Public Library. For additional suggestions chat with a staff member by going to <http://bookus.kentonlibrary.org>

