

Ways to Save Money Using the Library During Your Job Hunt

- Cut Cable Costs: Library staff will reserve TV Series (new and old) in order for you to view them at home. Search our catalog for Game of Thrones, The Walking Dead, or many of our other popular titles.
- Music: Download 5 songs a week using our Freegal site, borrow the hottest new albums with Hoopla, or check out up to 50 CD's at a time. To use Hoopla or Freegal visit our website under Research & Learning: eMedia.
- Quiet Study Rooms: Take advantage of our private spaces. Call reference desks to reserve a space (Erlanger 859-962-4002) (Covington 859-962-4071) (Independence 859-962-4030). To reserve a space online visit our website: Locations> Your Library of Choice> Request a Meeting Room.
- Notary Services: Get documents notarized at the Erlanger, Independence or Covington Libraries.
- Copies: Make copies or print-outs at competitive prices (.10 for Black/White, .50 for Color.)
- Computer Skills: Update your MS Word, Excel, PowerPoint or Publisher skills taught in live classes by Susan Rasche in Covington. Call (859)-962-4071 to register or check online through our calendar.
- Practice Tests: Visit our website, go to Research & Learning> Test Prep> Learning Express to find various aptitude tests for job interviews.
- Gale Courses: Take an adult education class on a variety of topics from business to writing to technology. Visit our website under Research & Learning>Test Prep> Gale Courses.
- Entertainment: Attend a concert, cooking class, Trivia Night or craft all for free. See our monthly newsletter for programs at all branches.
- Magazines: Download the latest edition of magazines like Star, or Better Homes & Gardens for free on your mobile device via RBDigital or Flipster. Visit our website under Research & Learning> Newsstand. Be sure to browse our physical collection when visiting a branch.

- News: Visit our website under Research & Learning: Newsstand to see Consumer Reports, the Cincinnati Enquirer, Kentucky Enquirer and more or come to a branch to peruse our selection of newspapers.
- Audio books: We offer eBooks for your Kindle or reading app via Overdrive. Search overdrive on our website to download the app.
- Research: Schedule a one-on-one appointment with a Reference Librarian at any branch (859-962-4000).
- Animals: Get your cat spayed/neutered for FREE with the Neuterville Express. Sponsored by OAR Low Cost Spay and Neuter Clinic, a transport van visits our Covington Branch quarterly. Call 513-871-0185 to make an appointment or visit www.ohioalleycat.org/transport-locations.
- SCORE: Register in advance at the Erlanger Branch on Tuesday mornings from 9:00AM-1:30PM to start your own side business with guidance from SCORE advisors. One-on-one meetings offered on appointment only basis. Call (859-962-4002) to register or search our online calendar.
- Convert Family VHS Tapes to DVD's or Records/LP's to CD's: Save on service fees by converting personal tapes at the Erlanger Library for free. ($1 CD/DVD disc charge. Free if you provide your own.)
- Computer Access/Free Wifi: We offer computers and instant access to fast Wifi at all branches.
- Learn or Practice a Language: Check our language audio books, non-fiction books, or visit our website: Research & Learning> Languages>Mango Languages for interactive online learning.
- Prepare Your Will/Other Documents: Print your own legal forms (everything from certificates to contracts) by visiting our website Research & Learning>Business> Legal Forms.
- Books/CDs/DVDs: As always, check-out books, CDs, DVDs, magazines & video games. Many items can be renewed up to 5 times. We also offer telescopes, maker-kits for children and adults, book discussion kits, lawn games, retro game systems, Wifi hotspots and Empower Tools.
