

Introduction:

The Northern Kentucky Newspaper Collection is comprised of various local and national newspapers featuring regional and national events of great importance, including World War II, the John F. Kennedy Assassination, the Moon Landing, and Reds' Baseball.

"The Flood of 1937," Cincinnati Post, February 13, 1937

"Americans Fleeing From Chinese Cities," The Cincinnati Times-Star, December 23, 1937

"Fall of Manila Believed Near," The Cincinnati Times-Star, December 31, 1941

"Roosevelt Dead," Pittsburgh Sun-Telegram, April 13, 1945

"JFK Shot by Assassin," The Cincinnati Post and Times-Star, November 22, 1963

"Last Tributes Paid Kennedy; Suspect's Threats Revealed," The Cincinnati Post and Times-Star, November 23, 1963

"Awe'd Earthlings Hooray For Our Men on the Moon," The Kentucky Post and Times-Star, July 21, 1969

"Mankind Embraces the Moon—A Milestone, Not a Finish," The Christian Science Monitor, July 22, 1969

"Splashdown Site is Changed," The Cincinnati Post and Times-Star, July 24, 1969

"Reds Slight Choice," Cincinnati Post, October 10, 1970

"Good-by, Coney Island," The Cincinnati Enquirer Magazine, September 5, 1971

"Mt. Adams Incline," 50th Anniversary Issue, The Cincinnati Enquirer Magazine, July 16, 1972

"Forever," The Cincinnati Enquirer Magazine, November 26, 1972

Cincinnati: livable city," The Cincinnati Enquirer Magazine, October 5, 1975

"1776-1976," The Cincinnati Enquirer Magazine, July 4, 1976

Kentucky Post, January 20, 1977