Introduction: The National Lieutenant Governors Association Collection consists of photographs and videotapes covering the NLGA's conferences from 1999 to 2003. The collection includes photographs of some prominent political figures, including Al Gore and Robert Reich. Former Kentucky Lt. Governor Steve Henry is also included in folder thirteen. Other Lt. Governors featured in the collection are Lorraine Hunt, John Shelton Wilder, John Carney, Jan Brewer, Winthrop Rockefeller, Pat Quinn, Diane Denish, Andrei Bayer, Karl Ohs, Olene Walker, Jack Dalrymple, Charles F. Fogarty, Vargrave Richards, Jodi Rell, Jill Morrison, Martha Hanson, Lucy Baxley, Mitch Landrieu, John Cherry, Scott McCullum, Jack Riggs, Amy Tuck, Mary Fallin, Gary Sherrer, and Madeleine Bardallo.

Donor Information: This collection was donated to the Local History and Genealogy department of the Kenton County Public Library by NLGA Director Julia Hurst.

Organizational Sketch: The National Lieutenant Governors Association (NLGA), organized in 1962, is the professional association for the elected officials first in line of succession to the governors in the 50 states and five U.S. territories. The purpose of NLGA is to promote efficiency and effectiveness of the office of lieutenant governor, to foster interstate cooperation, to provide a medium for the exchange of views and experiences on subjects important to the people of the states and territories, and to generally improve the efficiency of state and territorial administration through education on issues and leadership training.
